Radioline available on HARMAN Ignite Store, the dedicated Automotive Hub for Android Developers

April 20, 2021 – Radioline is now part of the HARMAN Ignite Store, offering the only global radio coverage on the leading connected vehicle platform that connects consumers with their favorite brands.

"Radioline is proud to join the HARMAN Ignite Store and participate in their rich in-vehicle app store, perfectly designed for automotive manufacturers: intuitive, custom, reliable and comprehensive," says Xavier Filliol, COO of Radioline. "The inclusion of Radioline in this cloud-based system will provide consumers around the world access to all of their favorite media content wherever they are – including on the road."

Radioline provides 110,000 radio stations and podcasts from 130 countries, this represents all broadcast stations and 30,000 webradios, enriched with metadata and program guides, and 10 million podcasts chapters. The service is available in 10 languages based on curated local catalogs. Through inclusion in the HARMAN Ignite Store, consumers around the world will have the ability to access this content library directly in their vehicle.

"HARMAN Ignite Store allows seamless integration of 3rd party content into the drive experience," said Albert Jordan, VP and GM of the HARMAN Ignite Store business unit within HARMAN Automotive. "The wide variety of content available through Radioline is just what consumers are asking for in their vehicles, and we are excited to welcome them to the HARMAN Ignite Store ecosystem."

The Harman Ignite Store offers access to a curated list of applications that allow consumers to tailor their connected experience to their particular needs and preferences. With the added functionality of the new HARMAN Ignite Store Developers Portal, Android Developers will have full access to test their automotive applications prior to being reviewed by HARMAN experts.
